

Asa Gray

Charlton House Kew, near
London, 22<sup>d</sup> Sept. 1868

My Dear Henry

You will be pleased to know that our quite smooth and favorable voyage terminated a week ago, and that Mrs. Gray and I found comfortable lodgings awaiting us here on New Green, where we are established. Mrs. G. is now the coach for the voyage I hope better, and can procure plenty of rest here, - where our friends who survive seem very glad to see us.

Mr. Winthrop I find has gone home, so I should be obliged to you for a line of introduction to our Minister, Mr. Rev. Johnson - which you kindly offered to Mrs. Gray. Please address us here till Nov. 1, - after that better address to the Baring Brothers & Co. London. Ever yours affectionately
Asa Gray

Dr. J. W. Gray

Prof. Joseph Henry

Smithsonian Institution

Washington